The Blaydon Races

Do...

Imagine you're one of the characters in the much-loved 1903 painting by William Irving. Who are you and what brought you to the Blaydon Races?

Think...

Perhaps you could make up a short story about your character, or write a diary entry for your day. What were the sensations you experienced at the event?

Share...

Share your stories and reflections. Could some of your characters have known or met each other? What happened?
